Period for Which Compensation is Sought:	June 1, 2019 through September 30, 2019 (the “ Compensation Period ”)
Amount of Fees Sought excluding Gross-Up Amount:	$5,893,697.40

This is a(n) ____ Monthly X Interim ____ Final Fee Application

This is the seventh interim fee application filed by Proskauer in the Debtor’s Title III case. The total time expended in connection with the preparation of this interim application is not included herein, as additional time was expended after the Compensation Period.

² Proskauer requests approval now, as part of its fees and expenses, of the amount required to gross up the additional tax withholding (the “Gross-Up Amount”) introduced by the Commonwealth legislation (Act 257-2018) starting December 10, 2018 (the “Withholding”). But Proskauer will only request payment of the Gross-Up Amount from the Debtor if and when Proskauer partners receive a determination or objection from the Internal Revenue Service that the Withholding does not result in tax credits offsetting the Gross-Up Amount. As of the date of hereof, Proskauer has not requested payment of the Gross-Up Amount.

If Applicable, the Difference Between Fees Budgeted and Compensation Sought for This Application Period	$154,233.86 ⁷

⁷ The total fees sought in this Application exceed the total budgeted fees for the time period, however, by less than 10% (the fees sought exceed the budgeted fees by 2.7%). The higher than budgeted fee amounts were in connection with the ongoing adversary

Any Rates Higher than Those Approved or Disclosed when Retained? If yes, calculate and disclose the total compensation sought in this Application using the rates originally disclosed at retention.	No. As explained in Proskauer's Fifth Interim Application (as defined below), rates increased in accordance with Proskauer's Engagement Letter on January 1, 2019. Rates have not increased during the Compensation Period.

proceedings including actions brought by UTIER and various fuel line lenders. Proskauer made significant efforts representing the Oversight Board and the Debtor in connection with these matters, including in connection with the PREPA Rule 9019 motion and continued negotiation regarding the Definitive RSA, dated May 3, 2019 (as amended). These efforts contributed to the higher than budgeted fee amounts.

necessary expenses in the amount of $151,543.10 incurred during the Compensation Period. In support of the Application, Proskauer respectfully avers as follows:⁶

Jurisdiction

1. The United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (the “Court”) has subject matter jurisdiction over this Application pursuant to PROMESA section 306(a).
2. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to PROMESA section 307(a).
3. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are PROMESA sections 316 and 317.

Background

4. On June 30, 2016, the Oversight Board was established under PROMESA section 101(b). On August 31, 2016, President Obama appointed the Oversight Board’s seven voting members.
5. Pursuant to PROMESA section 315, “[t]he Oversight Board in a case under this subchapter is the representative of the debtor” and “may take any action necessary on behalf of the debtor to prosecute the case of the debtor, including filing a petition under section [304] of [PROMESA] . . . or otherwise generally submitting filings in relation to the case with the court.” PROMESA § 315(a), (b).

⁶ PROMESA § 317 provides “[a] debtor’s attorney . . . may apply to the court not more than once every 120 days after an order for relief in a case under this subchapter, or more often if the court permits, for such compensation for services rendered before the date of such an application or reimbursement for expenses incurred before such date as is provided under section 2176 of this title.” PROMESA § 317.

Proskauer filed its Sixth Interim Fee Application for the period February 1, 2019 through May 31, 2019 on September 20, 2019, 91 days before this Application. While Proskauer files this Application less than 120 days after it filed its Sixth Fee Application, Proskauer believes this Application complies with PROMESA § 317, as it seeks compensation for fees and reimbursement for expenses for the 120 day period subsequent to the Sixth Interim Fee Application, which was filed late with the consent of the Fee Examiner. The 120-day period in PROMESA § 317 refers to the interim period for which fees are sought. Thus this Application complies with PROMESA § 317 because the Application concerns the period between June 1, 2019 through September 30, 2019, the interim period following the period for Proskauer’s Sixth Fee Interim Application. In the alternative, Proskauer seeks leave from the Court to file this Application now, in accordance with PROMESA § 317. Notably, no benefit would abound to any party if Proskauer was required to wait 120 days from the filing of the Sixth Interim Fee Application.

6. On September 30, 2016, the Oversight Board designated the Debtor as a “covered entity” under PROMESA section 101(d).

7. On November 25, 2016, the Oversight Board retained Proskauer at substantial discounts to its normal hourly rates, as shown by the Engagement Letter and by Schedule 5 above.

8. On July 2, 2017, the Oversight Board issued a restructuring certification pursuant to PROMESA sections 104(j) and 206 and filed a voluntary petition for relief for PREPA pursuant to PROMESA section 304(a), commencing a case under Title III thereof (the “Debtor’s Title III Case”). Pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), the Oversight Board is the Debtor’s representative in the Debtor’s Title III Case.

9. Background information regarding the Debtor and the commencement of the Debtor’s Title III Case is contained in the Notice of Filing of Statement of Oversight Board Regarding PREPA’s Title III Case [Case No. 17 BK 4780–LTS, ECF No. 2].

16. On August 1, 2019, Proskauer served on the Notice Parties (as defined in the Interim Compensation Order) its twenty–fifth monthly fee statement for the period June 1, 2019 through June 30, 2019. On August 28, 2019, Proskauer served on the Notice Parties its twenty–sixth monthly fee statement for the period July 1, 2019 through July 31, 2019. On October 4, 2019, Proskauer served on the Notice Parties its twenty–eighth monthly fee statement for the period September 1, 2019 through September 30, 2019.

17. In accordance with the Interim Compensation Order and as reflected in the foregoing summary, Proskauer has requested an aggregate payment of $5,455,870.76 (payment of ninety percent (90%) of the compensation sought and reimbursement of one–hundred percent (100%) of expenses incurred) and has received $5,455,870.76 with respect to fee statements filed during the Compensation Period.

Summary of Services Rendered by Proskauer During the Compensation Period

18. The instant Application is Proskauer’s seventh application for interim compensation in the Debtor’s Title III Case. To make the review of Proskauer’s fee applications in all the pending Title III cases more efficient for the Court and other readers, paragraphs 19 through 22 of the instant Application, and the corresponding paragraphs in each of Proskauer’s seventh interim fee applications in the other pending Title III cases, are identical and cover the principal activities in all the Title III cases.

19. Since the commencement of these Title III cases, Proskauer has achieved significant progress on the behalf of the Oversight Board. As a brief overview:

- In the first interim period, Proskauer transitioned the Commonwealth and certain of its instrumentalities to Title III, and, among other things, proposed and negotiated a mechanism to resolve the Commonwealth-COFINA dispute over which entity owns billions of dollars of sales and use tax revenues, and successfully defended against attempts by creditors to (a) seize the toll revenues HTA needed to maintain the Commonwealth's transportation system and (b) seize PREPA and its revenues by putting PREPA in the hands of a receiver.
- In the second interim period, in the face of the devastation wrought by Hurricanes Irma and Maria, Proskauer worked with the Oversight Board's officers and other professionals to assess the situation, take actions to ensure the provision of basic services, and reformulate restructuring initiatives to reflect the changing economic landscape. Proskauer also successfully defended against numerous creditor efforts to enjoin the Oversight Board from proceeding toward a plan of adjustment based on the certified fiscal plan and to seize many revenue streams.
- In the third interim period, Proskauer secured emergency authorization for the Commonwealth to lend $300 million to PREPA on a superpriority basis, despite significant opposition by creditor groups, and continued its leading role in assisting the Oversight Board with the development, certification, and defense of revised fiscal plans that provide the blueprint for Puerto Rico's future prosperity and fiscal responsibility. Proskauer also successfully defended against numerous creditor efforts to delay or frustrate the debtors' restructurings during these periods.
- In the fourth interim period, Proskauer continued forging paths to restructure Puerto Rico's debt, representing the Oversight Board as the Administrative Supervisor of the Government Development Bank for Puerto Rico's ("GDB") Title VI qualifying modification, representing the Oversight Board in negotiations seeking to restructure a major portion of PREPA's debt, and continuing to work through negotiations related to (and eventually resolving) the Commonwealth-COFINA dispute. COFINA and GDB alone account for over $20 billion of Puerto Rico's $74 billion in bond debt, and their successful restructuring are significant building blocks for the Oversight Board to accomplish its overall mandate to achieve fiscal responsibility and access to capital markets for Puerto Rico. Proskauer also vigorously and successfully protected the Oversight Board's fiscal plan and budgetary powers in adversary proceedings commenced by the Governor and Legislature challenging the Oversight Board's authority, among other critical efforts in litigation during the fourth interim period.
- In the fifth interim period, Proskauer continued its leading role in assisting the Oversight Board with the development and certification of revised fiscal plans. Proskauer also represented the Oversight Board in PREPA's Title III case, leading the defense against a renewed motion seeking to lift the stay to allow for the appointment of a receiver for PREPA, and dedicating significant effort to forward negotiations with a substantial number of PREPA bondholders to draft and finalize a definitive restructuring support agreement. Proskauer also drafted appellate briefs and presented oral argument before the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit concerning creditors' appeals seeking to reverse decisions protecting HTA and PREPA from creditor attempts to seize their revenues. Proskauer also worked with several of the Title III Debtors and their related advisors in opposing a multitude of motions seeking to lift the automatic stay and otherwise hamper the debtors' restructuring. Lastly, Proskauer counseled the Oversight Board as it engaged with the Commonwealth's various creditors, stakeholders and professionals in mediations and negotiations related to the Commonwealth's restructuring, and has devoted significant time to research and develop strategies to ensure the debtors exit Title III as soon as possible.

- In the sixth interim period, Proskauer continued its role to defend against the (now former) Governor's appeal to the First Circuit in Rosello-Nevares v. FOMB, Case No. 18-AP-80, and researched and prepared for new litigation to nullify Commonwealth legislation enacted in violation of PROMESA. Proskauer also negotiated new restructuring agreements with various creditor groups and unions, and drafted major portions of the proposed plan of adjustment and proposed disclosure statement for the Commonwealth, ERS, and PBA. In the Commonwealth's Title III case, among many other achievements, Proskauer counseled the Oversight Board through many statutory and constitutional issues related to the development and certification of a fiscal plan and various budgets for the Commonwealth and its instrumentalities. Moreover, Proskauer advised the Oversight Board as it brought, jointly with the UCC, a challenge to alleged liens asserted by holders of general obligation bonds of the Commonwealth. Additionally, Proskauer counseled the Oversight Board as it brought, together with the UCC, a challenge to alleged liens asserted by holders of general obligation bonds of the Commonwealth. Within the ERS Title III case, Proskauer defended against efforts by secured creditors to lift the automatic stay to seize its revenues. In the PREPA Title III case, Proskauer made headway in defending against a renewed motion created by monoline insurers of PREPA bonds to lift PREPA's stay to appoint a receiver, while negotiation with some of the moving parties at the same time. In addition, Proskauer negotiated and entered into the Definitive Restructuring Support Agreement (the "PREPA RSA") for PREPA with a majority of PREPA's bondholders, and pursued court approval of certain settlements contained in the PREPA RSA by filing a motion under Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and two supplemental memoranda of law in support of it. In the HTA Title III case, among other matters, Proskauer represented the Oversight Board in its joint filing with the UCC of a challenge to the nature, extent and scope of purported liens securing HTA bondholders' claims.

20. In the instant Compensation Period, Proskauer serviced many new Oversight Board projects, while maintaining momentum gained from the preceding periods. Chief among these, Proskauer counseled the Oversight Board in its pivotal role negotiating and drafting a proposed Title III joint plan of adjustment (the “Plan”) for the Commonwealth, ERS and the Puerto Rico Public Buildings Authority (“PBA”) and a proposed disclosure statement (the “Disclosure Statement”) explaining the Plan and pertinent facts concerning the debtors affected by the Plan. Concurrently with the Plan and Disclosure Statement, Proskauer represented the Oversight Board as it commenced a Title III case for PBA, preparing and filing PBA’s petition and other first day pleadings and seamlessly transitioning PBA into Title III. The Plan and Disclosure Statement address over $35 billion of debt and other claims against these Debtors, and more than $50 billion of pension liabilities, and brings Puerto Rico closer its emergence from Title III. Additionally, Proskauer continued to defend the Oversight Board and Title III Debtors’ interests in numerous, multi-billion-dollar adversary proceedings, contested matters and appeals brought by various bondholders, monoline insurers, unions and other parties in interest. Many of these challenges are of first impression, and involve, among other things, the constitutionality of various PROMESA provisions, the correct interpretation of various sections of PROMESA and the Bankruptcy Code, and the validity of certain creditors’ asserted liens. Furthermore, Proskauer also guided the Oversight Board as it exercised its powers and responsibilities certifying fiscal plans and budgets, and issuing restructuring certifications.

21. Throughout the Compensation Period, Proskauer continued to object to defective claims against the debtors, provided on-going legal assistance to the Oversight Board, and negotiated with various creditors, stakeholders, government parties and other parties in interest in furtherance of each of the Debtors’ respective restructurings, and, ultimately, helped the Oversight Board progress toward its PROMESA prescribed mandate of returning the Commonwealth to fiscal responsibility and access to capital markets. Some of Proskauer's notable undertakings during this Compensation Period include:

- Certification of New Fiscal Plans and Budgets. Proskauer continued to counsel the Oversight Board as it, along with its financial advisors, rigorously analyzed data and assessed the economic and structural impact of proposed fiscal plans and budgets. Throughout, Proskauer provided on-going assistance with emergent legal issues, and helped with the drafting of the new fiscal plans and budgets to achieve PROMESA's mandate to restore Puerto Rico to fiscal responsibility and access to capital markets.
- Claim Objections. Pursuant to the Bar Date Orders [ECF Nos. 2521 and 3160], approximately 171,374 claims were filed against the Debtors and logged by Prime Clerk. Such proofs of claim total approximately $43.6 trillion in asserted claims against the Debtors. Of the proofs of claim filed, over 3,000 claims were filed in relation to COFINA, totaling approximately $10.1 trillion in asserted claims; approximately 55,000 claims were filed in relation to, or reclassified to be asserted against, ERS, totaling approximately $10.2 trillion in asserted claims; over 2,000 claims were filed in relation to HTA, totaling approximately $83.1 billion in asserted claims; and approximately 109,000 claims were filed against the Commonwealth, totaling approximately $33.2 trillion in asserted claims. Upon review and further assessment by Proskauer, in consultation with other advisors to the Oversight Board, it became clear that many of these claims need not have been filed at all, or suffered from some other flaw, such as improperly identifying one of the Debtors, or being duplicative of other proofs of claim. In connection with these claims, Proskauer, working with other professionals, filed a total of 40 omnibus objections and 17 individual objections between June 1, 2019 and September 30, 2019. Proskauer spent a significant amount of time and effort preparing and filing these objections, as well as reviewing responses to various objections, negotiating resolutions to the objections with creditors, preparing and filing replies in support of their objections, and attending several related hearings. As a result of Proskauer's efforts, between June 1, 2019 and September 30, 2019, thousands of claims were fully or partially expunged.
- Joint Title III Plan of Adjustment and Disclosure Statement, and PBA Title III Filing. Proskauer devoted significant manpower counseling the Oversight Board through its critical role in negotiating and drafting the Plan, Case No. 17-3283, ECF No. 8765, to restructure $35 billion of debt and other claims against the Commonwealth, the PBA, and ERS, and more than $50 billion of pension liabilities. Proskauer devoted a substantial and well-measured amount of resources and hours formulating, researching, drafting, negotiating, and filing (i) a proposed disclosure statement, and (ii) a proposed plan of adjustment. In addition, Proskauer counseled the Oversight Board as it commenced an additional Title III case for a new debtor, PBA, as contemplated by the Plan [Case No. 19-5523].

The Plan is the culmination of the agreements the Oversight Board reached with several major creditor groups on the treatments of their claims. At the time of the filing of the plan of adjustment, three stakeholder groups supported the plan including (a) the Official Committee of Retired Employees, whose constituency is owed over $50 billion for their pension claims, (b) the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, which represents more than 10,900 current employees of the Commonwealth and its instrumentalities, and (c) a bondholder group owning (I) bonds issued by PBA (“PBA Bondholders” or “PBA Bonds”) and guaranteed by the Commonwealth, and (II) GO bonds issued by the Commonwealth. The group holding PBA Bonds and GO bonds issued by the Commonwealth agreed on a framework for a plan of adjustment. Critically, the agreement includes the compromise and settlement of a key dispute between the Commonwealth and PBA regarding the characterization of leases between the two entities, and the optional settlement of certain challenges to GO bonds. Support for this agreement includes holders of approximately 54% of Vintage PBA Bond Claims, and approximately 11% of GO Bond Claims.

Given the various, complex issues surrounding the treatment of various claims, and the myriad of adversary actions filed in the Title III cases, a substantial amount of time was required to draft the Disclosure Statement, Case No. 17-3283, ECF No. 8766, to ensure it provided adequate information pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 1125(b). The Disclosure Statement includes, among other things, an overview of the Commonwealth, PBA, and ERS; a summary of significant events leading to the commencement of the Title III cases; an overview of significant events during the Title III cases; summaries of material adversary proceedings filed in the Title III cases; comprehensive best interest test analyses, a summary of the Plan; certain risk factors to be considered; and material income tax considerations.

- ERS Lift Stay. Proskauer continued to conduct research and analyses, as well as draft objections, responses and discovery requests in connection with the ERS Lift Stay Motion, Motion of Certain Secured Creditors of the Employees Retirement System of the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico for Relief from the Automatic Stay [Case No. 17-3566, ECF No. 289], and related motions to compel and discovery motions. Additionally, Proskauer (i) communicated with counsel and other advisors to AAFAF on multiple adequate protection related discovery issues and developed further discovery strategy; (ii) communicated with bondholders’ counsel on multiple discovery related issues, including motions to compel production of documents, confidentiality and privilege, search terms for document collection and review, and depositions scope and scheduling, (iii) prepared for and participated in meet-and-confer sessions with bondholders’ counsel on multiple adequate protection related discovery issues as well as attended various hearings in connection with discovery issues, and (iv) expended significant hours preparing for and conducting depositions, reviewing exports reports and preparing privilege logs.
- First Circuit Appeals. Proskauer defended and litigated several matters before the Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. The following briefly summarizes major appeals in which Proskauer served as lead counsel for the Title III Debtors, and describing Proskauer's activities this Compensation Period:

- (1) Rene Pinto-Lugo et al. and Manuel Natal-Albelo v. Commonwealth, Case No. 19-1181; Elliott, Hein and Dvoretz v. Commonwealth, Case No. 19-1182; and Cooperativas v. COFINA, Case No. 19-1391:⁷ During this Compensation Period, Proskauer, on behalf of the Oversight Board, filed pleadings responsive to these appeals, including a motion to dismiss the Cooperativas appeal as equitably moot filed on June 28, 2019. The motion argues that since the COFINA Plan of Adjustment has been fully consummated and relied upon by innocent third parties, granting the appellants' request to overturn the confirmation of the plan would be impractical and inequitable. The appeals remain ongoing and Proskauer continues to review pleadings filed by the various parties and research the issues to prepare appropriate responses.
- (2) Centro de Salud Familiar J.P.F., et al., v. Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Case No. 19-1189:⁸ On September 23, 2019, Proskauer, on behalf of the Oversight Board, filed a motion to dismiss the appeal for lack of subject-matter jurisdiction. Briefing on the appeal remains ongoing.
- (3) Atlantic Medical Center, Inc., et al. v. Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, et al., Case No. 18-2228 and Corporacion de Servicios v. Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, et al., Case No. 19-1202:⁹ Plaintiffs filed their opening brief on appeal on April 18, 2019, and Proskauer, on behalf of the Oversight Board, filed its answering brief on July 11, 2019. Plaintiffs' filed their reply brief on July 31, 2019.
- (4) Employees Retirement System, et al. v. Andalusian Global Designated, et al., Case No. 19-1699 and Employees Retirement System, et al. v. PR AAA Portfolio Target, et al., Case No. 19-1700: On July 9, 2019, ERS bondholders filed notices of appeals of an order by the Title III Court regarding the application of Section 552 of the Bankruptcy Code to certain ERS postpetition revenue streams. The appeals were consolidated on July 26, 2019. On July 29, 2019, appellants filed their opening brief. On August 28, 2019, Proskauer, on behalf of the Oversight Board and ERS, filed their answering briefs, while the UCC filed its answering brief on August 29, 2019. On September 11, 2019, Appellants filed their reply briefs.

⁷ On February 22, 2019, three sets of appellants filed appeals of the order confirming the COFINA Plan of Adjustment including: (i) Rene Pinto-Lugo and Manuel Natal-Albelo (Rene Pinto-Lugo et al. and Manuel Natal-Albelo v. Commonwealth, Case No. 19-1181 (1st Cir.)) ("Pinto-Lugo"), (ii) Mark Elliott, Lawrence B. Dvoretz, and Peter C. Hein (Elliott, Hein and Dvoretz v. Commonwealth, Case No. 19-1182 (1st Cir.)) (the "Elliott"), and (iii) Cooperativa de Ahorro y Credito Dr. Manuel Zeno Gandia, Cooperativa de Ahorro y Credito de Juana Diaz, and Cooperativa de Ahorro y Credito de Rincon (Cooperativas v. COFINA, Case No. 19-1391 (1st Cir.)) (the "Cooperativas").

⁸ On April 2, 2018, Magistrate Judge Dein, at ECF No. 55 in Adv. Proc. No. 17-00227, issued a report and recommendation on a motion by the Commonwealth for abstention and remand of the matter. Magistrate Judge Dein recommended the motion be granted, the case be remanded back to the Commonwealth Court and the stay be lifted to allow plaintiffs to proceed to judgment in the Commonwealth Court. Plaintiffs objected to the recommendation and report. On July 10, 2018, the Title III Court entered a memorandum order overruling objections to and adopting the April 2, 2018 report and recommendation, and granting the Commonwealth's motion for abstention and directed the case to be remanded. On August 8, 2018, plaintiffs appealed the Title III Court's order to the First Circuit, which was docketed on February 25, 2019.

⁹ In connection with Adv. Proc. No. 17-278, on August 7, 2018, Magistrate Judge Dein issued a report and recommendation on the Commonwealth's motion to dismiss, recommending that the motion to dismiss be granted and both complaints be dismissed without prejudice to refile when a plan of adjustment for the Commonwealth has been proposed, or to allege specific impairment due to PROMESA. On November 27, 2018, the Title III Court issued an order overruling objections to and adopting the report and recommendation. On December 10, 2018, Plaintiffs appealed to the First Circuit.

- In addition, the below is a summary of major appeals in which Proskauer received favorable judgments before the First Circuit for the Debtors and the Oversight Board during the Compensation Period:
 - Gracia Gracia et al. v. Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Case No. 18-1463:¹⁰ The appeal was argued to the First Circuit on June 5, 2019, and on September 25, 2019 the First Circuit issued an opinion affirming in part and vacating in part the Court's partial denial of the plaintiffs' requested stay relief and remanded back to the Court the issues related to the segregated funds claimed by Plaintiffs.
 - AMP v. Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, et al., Case No. 18-2194: This appeal stems from a notice of appeal of the Memorandum Order Denying Motion of Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors for Entry of an Order Enforcing the Automatic Stay [Case No. 17-3283, ECF No. 3941], denying the Autonomous Municipality of Ponce's ("AMP") request to modify the stay because AMP failed to demonstrate cause. AMP filed its opening brief on March 18, 2019. Proskauer researched, prepared and filed a brief in opposition, on behalf of the Oversight Board, on May 1, 2019. On June 5, 2019, AMP filed its reply. Oral argument was conducted on September 11, 2019, and on September 25, 2019, the First Circuit issued an opinion upholding the Court's order denying AMP's request to modify the automatic stay.
- PREPA 9019 Motion.¹¹ During the Compensation Period, Proskauer concentrated its

¹¹ On May 10, 2019, Proskauer filed the Joint Motion of Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority and AAFAF Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Sections 362, 502, 922, And 928, and Bankruptcy Rules 3012(A)(1) and 9019 for Order Approving Settlements Embodied in the Restructuring Support Agreement and Tolling Certain Limitations Periods [Case No. 17-4780, ECF No. 1235] (the "PREPA 9019 Motion"). The PREPA 9019 Motion seeks approval of certain settlements embodied in the Definitive Restructuring Support Agreement dated as of May 3, 2019 (the "RSA" or "PREPA RSA"), by and among (1) PREPA, (2) the Oversight Board, (3) AAFAF (PREPA, the Oversight Board, and AAFAF are sometimes collectively referred to herein as the "Government Parties"), (4) the members of the Ad Hoc Group of PREPA Bondholders, (5) any other persons who beneficially own or control Uninsured Bonds that are party to the RSA or execute a joinder to the RSA (the "Uninsured Supporting Holders"), and (5) Assured Guaranty Corp. and Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp. (collectively "Assured," Assured and the Uninsured Supporting Holders are collectively referred to herein as the "Supporting Holders," and the Supporting Holders collectively with Government Parties, the "RSA Parties"). Such settlements resolve, as and to the extent set forth in the RSA and the proposed order efforts on three areas: (i) discovery related motions, including motions to strike and motions to compel filed by various respondents to the PREPA 9019 Motion, (ii) preparation for and attendance of a hearing in connection with the discovery motions; and (iii) supplemental research and drafting supplemental briefs in support of the PREPA 9019 motion. Additionally, Proskauer also communicated with the various Supporting Parties and negotiated extended briefing and discovery related deadlines which culminated in the filing of several motions extending said deadlines.

- PRIFA/AMBAC Stay Relief Motion: On May 30, 2019, Ambac Assurance Corp. (“Ambac”) filed a motion requesting an order that the Title III automatic stay does not apply to certain anticipated lawsuits relating to bonds issued by the Puerto Rico Infrastructure Financing Authority (“PRIFA”). In the alternative, Ambac sought (i) relief from the stay to allow Ambac to pursue those lawsuits in different courts, or (ii) an order compelling the Commonwealth to provide adequate protection for Ambac’s purported collateral. Ambac holds and insures bonds issued by PRIFA. On June 6, 2019, Proskauer, on behalf of the Oversight Board, filed, amongst other things, a motion to dismiss Ambac’s motion for lack of standing. On June 7, 2019, the Court denied the motion to dismiss without prejudice to the Oversight Board raising the same arguments in its response to Ambac’s motion. On July 3, 2019, the Oversight Board and AAFAF filed oppositions to Ambac’s motion for relief, inclusive of the arguments raised in its motion to dismiss. Ambac and the Financial Guaranty Insurance Company (“FGIC”) filed a joint reply on July 16, 2019. On July 17, 2019, the Court issued an order directing the Oversight Board to file a sur-reply to Ambac and FGIC’s reply by July 19, 2019. On July 19, 2019, the Oversight Board filed its sur-reply together with an objection to a joinder motion filed by monoline insurers Assured Guaranty Corp. and Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp. On July 24, 2019, the Court issued an order staying the matter through November 30, 2019. Following the end of this Compensation Period, on October 28, 2019, the Court issued an order further staying the matter through December 31, 2019.
- UTIER v. PREPA. In connection with Adversary Case No. 17-229 (UTIER v. P.R. Elec. Power Auth., et al., Adv. Proc. No. 17-0229), Proskauer continued to conduct extensive discovery with UTIER, the Puerto Rico Department of Justice, and the Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority. The matter required additional efforts to gather and analyze documents from multiple sources in order to evaluate UTIER’s claims and the Commonwealth’s and PREPA’s defenses. Over the period covered by the application, Proskauer also continued to analyze factual and expert discovery that may be needed to defend the case.

granting the PREPA 9019 Motion, (a) the claims asserted by the Supporting Holders and objections of the Government Parties thereto, (b) certain bondholder litigation against PREPA by all Supporting Holders, (c) the Supporting Holders’ ability to exercise rights under the Trust Agreement or other applicable law, and (d) the Supporting Holders’ right to receive any current payments on their PREPA bonds. The proposed settlements represent a significant milestone in PREPA’s Title III case and the overall restructuring of PREPA. Pursuant to the RSA, the creditors (absent future defaults) settle their alleged secured claims and rights asserted thereunder, including requests for stay relief, in exchange for PREPA agreeing to allow their claims in less than their full face amounts. In addition, the creditors agree to support, and PREPA agrees to propose, a plan under which Supporting Holders will exchange their bonds for securitization bonds that are secured by a fixed and predictable transition charge. In an amendment to the RSA dated as of September 9, 2019, National Public Finance Guarantee Corporation (“National”) and Syncora Guarantee Inc. (“Syncora”) joined the PREPA RSA.

22. In addition to the above, Proskauer has defended against numerous litigations against the Title III Debtors. The following is a summary of major litigation matters in which Proskauer served as lead counsel for the Title III Debtors during this Compensation Period:

- Sciemus Limited et al. v. The Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico, Adv. Proc. No. 19-00369: On June 6, 2019, Sciemus Limited, Markel Europe, Lloyd's Syndicates, Indian Harbor Insurance Company and PartnerRe Ireland Insurance filed an adversary complaint against PREPA regarding the proper amount of insurance payment owed to PREPA in connection with a collapse of the roof of an insured fuel storage tank at a PREPA facility. Plaintiffs seek a declaratory judgement that damage to the tank happened over multiple occurrences, that PREPA failed to notify insurers of the incidents, that PREPA failed to mitigate damage to the tank, and that PREPA is entitled to $1,276,000 in insurance payment under the policy terms instead of $25,481,131.30 as asserted by PREPA. On July 12, 2019, the plaintiffs filed an amended complaint. The Court has granted two motions for extension of time to respond to the adversary complaint, with an answer due on November 25, 2019.
- Financial Oversight & Management Board for Puerto Rico, et al. v. U.S. Bank National Association, as Trustee, Adv. Proc. No. 19-00391: On July 1, 2019, the Oversight Board, jointly with AAFAF, filed a complaint against U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee for the PREPA bonds, seeking judgments (i) declaring that the security interest securing the PREPA bonds is limited to funds deposited to the credit of PREPA's "Sinking Fund" under the Trust Agreement, (ii) in the alternative, avoiding any security interests that were granted for the benefit of PREPA bondholders beyond funds deposited to the credit of the "Sinking Fund" under Bankruptcy Code section 544 for lack of perfection, and (iii) disallowing the Trustee's master proof of claim to the extent it asserts such security interests. On July 16, 2019, the Court entered an order staying Adv. Proc. No. 19-391 until the earlier of (a) 60 days after the Court denies the PREPA 9019 Motion, (b) the consummation of a plan of adjustment for PREPA, (c) 60 days after the filing by plaintiffs of a notice seeking to resume litigation, or (d) further order of the Court and without prejudice to further extensions.
- Puerto Rico Horse Owners Association, Inc. v. Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, et al., Adv. Proc. No. 19-00392: On July 2, 2019, a non-profit organization, Puerto Rico Horse Owners Association, filed an action against the Commonwealth, the Oversight Board and its executive director (in her official capacity), and the Governor of Puerto Rico and certain government officials (in their official capacities) seeking declaratory relief that funds from uncashed winning tickets bet on horse races are not property of the Commonwealth, and should be paid to the Racing Administrator for distribution to certain Puerto Rico horse breeders. On July 3, 2019, Plaintiff filed an amended complaint purporting to correct a clerical error. On September 3, 2019, Commonwealth government officials Ricardo Rosselló-Nevares, Francisco Parés-Alicea and Alberto Maymó-Azize filed a motion to dismiss the amended complaint. The Commonwealth, Oversight Board, and Natalie Jaresko also filed a motion to dismiss the amended complaint on September

3, 2019. On September 4, 2019, AAFAF filed a motion to dismiss the amended complaint.

- Financial Oversight & Management Board for Puerto Rico v. Hon. Vazquez Garced et al., Adv. Proc. No. 19-00393: On July 3, 2019, the Oversight Board filed a complaint against then-Governor Rosselló and AAFAF largely challenging Act 29-2019, which eliminates the obligation of municipalities to reimburse the Commonwealth for pension payments to municipality retirees. Specifically, the complaint alleges that (i) Act 29-2019, including its enactment and enforcement, violates PROMESA section 204(a); (ii) Act 29-2019, including its enactment and enforcement, violates PROMESA section 207; (iii) the Oversight Board is entitled to a permanent injunction prohibiting defendants from implementing Act 29-2019; (iv) Act 29-2019 and the joint resolutions, including their enactment and enforcement, violate PROMESA Section 204(c); (v) the Oversight Board is entitled to an injunction compelling the Governor to submit PROMESA section 204(a) certifications for the new laws and non-certified joint resolutions; (vi) Act 29-2019 violates PROMESA section 108(a) and is not enforceable and is of no effect because it impairs and/or defeats the purposes of PROMESA, as determined by the Oversight Board; (vii) the joint resolutions violate PROMESA section 108(a) because they impair and/or defeat the purposes of PROMESA, as determined by the Oversight Board; and (viii) the Governor's alleged policy of not providing certifications as required under PROMESA section 204 violates PROMESA section 108(a) because it impairs and/or defeats the purposes of PROMESA, as determined by the Oversight Board.

Defendants filed a motion to dismiss on July 15, 2019, which was fully briefed and oral argument was heard on August 15, 2019. Also on August 15, 2019, in light of former-Governor Rosselló's resignation, the case was re-captioned to name current Governor Vázquez as a Defendant. On August 22, 2019, the Title III Court denied the motion to dismiss. Defendants answered the complaint on September 10, 2019.

- Cortland Capital Market Services LLC, et al., v. Financial Oversight & Management Board for Puerto Rico, et al., Adv. Proc. No. 19-00396: Lenders to PREPA (the "Fuel Line Lenders") filed an action on July 9, 2019 against the Oversight Board, PREPA, AAFAF and U.S. Bank. The Fuel Line Lenders allegedly lent PREPA $700 million since 2012, which PREPA then used to purchase fuel needed to operate its system. The complaint alleges that (i) their loans were deemed "Current Expenses" under the PREPA Trust Agreement and that under the agreement, PREPA is to pay all "current expenses" before the bonds, (ii) the PREPA bondholders' lien and recourse are limited only to net revenues deposited to the credit of specified accounts, (iii) PREPA bondholders are entitled to nothing until "Current Expenses" are paid, and (iv) the RSA reached between the PREPA bondholders, the Oversight Board and the other Defendants violates the Fuel Line Lenders' rights. The Fuel Line Lenders seek declaratory relief stating that the amounts they are owed are "Current Expenses" and thus they are entitled to payment before any payments are made to PREPA bondholders. On October 1, 2019, Plaintiffs filed an amended complaint. During the Compensation Period, Proskauer researched and drafted a motion to dismiss Plaintiffs' complaint on the ground, among others, that Plaintiffs lacked standing to interpose their claims objections to the bondholders' claims and failed to state a claim establishing their asserted seniority.

- Cooperativa de Ahorro y Crédito Abraham Rosa, et al. v. Public Corporation for the Supervision and Insurance of Cooperatives of Puerto Rico, et al., Adv. Proc. No. 19-00389: On July 1, 2019, Plaintiffs, a group of credit unions, filed a complaint against the Public Corporation for the Supervision and Insurance of Cooperatives of Puerto Rico (“COSSEC”), seeking declaratory and injunctive relief in connection with share and deposit insurance. Plaintiffs claim COSSEC is undercapitalized and unable to provide adequate share and deposit insurance, and thus, seek injunctions commanding COSSEC to request funds from the Puerto Rico Treasury Department. Plaintiffs filed their complaint under seal, and filed a motion to seal the proceedings. On July 15, 2019, Plaintiffs filed an urgent motion for a preliminary injunction seeking to order the Commonwealth to provide funds to COSSEC. The Oversight Board filed an opposition to the motion for a preliminary injunction on July 18, 2019. On July 25, 2019, the Oversight Board filed a motion to stay all responses to the complaint until 30 days after the Court issued a ruling on Plaintiffs’ motion for a preliminary injunction hearing. On July 26, 2019, the Court issued an order denying (i) Plaintiffs’ motion to seal and (ii) Plaintiffs’ motion for a preliminary injunction hearing. On July 29, 2019, Plaintiffs filed a notice of appeal of the order denying their motion to seal and motion for a preliminary injunction hearing. On August 2, 2019, in the First Circuit, Plaintiffs filed a motion to stay the order denying their motion to seal in Case No. 19-1755. On August 7, 2019, Defendants (and Appellees) filed their response. Also on August 7, 2019, the Oversight Board filed a motion to have all defendants’ responses to Plaintiffs’ complaint stayed until 30 days after the First Circuit decides Plaintiffs’ appeal from the denial of its motion for a preliminary injunction. The Court granted this motion on August 8, 2019. On August 9, 2019, the First Circuit issued an order temporarily staying the Title III Court’s order to unseal the adversary proceeding, but withdrew the interim stay on August 14, 2019. On August 16, 2019, Plaintiffs filed a motion to temporarily extend the stay in the Title III Court, which the Court denied.

23. As part of Proskauer’s involvement in the above matters, Proskauer (a) prepared and filed numerous pleadings and briefs in litigation matters; (b) participated in and prepared for hearings; (c) researched jurisprudence regarding legal and factual issues, including bankruptcy and U.S. Constitutional issues; and (d) performed a myriad of other professional services as described in this Application and reflected in Schedule 3 and Exhibit B.

24. By this Application, Proskauer seeks an allowance, pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, of (a) $6,424,130.18, as (i) compensation for professional services rendered in the amount of $5,893,697.40, and (ii) the Gross-Up Amount in the amount of $530,432.78;¹²

¹² Proskauer will only request payment of the Gross-Up Amount from the Debtor if and when Proskauer partners receive a determination or objection from the Internal Revenue Service that the Withholding does not result in tax and (b) $151,543.10 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred during the Compensation Period in connection with such professional services. Notably, the Application reflects aggregate voluntary reductions made during the Compensation Period to Proskauer's requests for compensation and for reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $39,624.30 and $16,210.94 respectively, on top of the sizeable discount embedded in its engagement letter with the Oversight Board, in which it fixed hourly rates at levels providing up to 45% discounts on the hourly rates of its most senior partners.

25. Proskauer maintains computerized records of the time spent by all Proskauer attorneys and paraprofessionals in connection with the firm's representation of the Oversight Board as representative of the Debtor. Subject to redaction where necessary to preserve mediation confidentiality, copies of the computerized records for the Compensation Period are attached hereto as Exhibit B.

26. Proskauer's budget and staffing plan for the Compensation Period are attached hereto as Exhibit D.

27. Proskauer's summary of itemized time records for professionals and paraprofessionals performing services for the Oversight Board with respect to the Debtor during the Compensation Period is set forth on Schedule 2. During the Compensation Period, Proskauer billed the Oversight Board for time expended by attorneys based on a set rate of $789 per hour. The professional services performed by Proskauer on behalf of the Oversight Board as representative of the Debtor during the Compensation Period required an aggregate expenditure of 2,837.80 recorded hours by Proskauer's partners and senior counsel; 3,756.80 recorded hours by associates; 972.80 recorded hours by e-Discovery attorneys; 176.10 recorded hours by law credits offsetting the Gross-Up Amount. As of the date of hereof, Proskauer has not requested payment of the Gross-Up Amount.

clerks;¹³ and 979.30 recorded hours by paraprofessionals. As required by the Guidelines, Exhibit C to this Application shows, for each Project Category (as defined below), a list of professionals who performed services in each Project Category and the aggregate recorded hours each professional incurred. In accordance with Guidelines paragraph C.3, Proskauer's blended hourly rates are disclosed in Schedules 1 and 5. The fees charged by Proskauer, as set forth in Schedule 2, are in accordance with the firm's existing billing rates and procedures in effect during the Compensation Period, as revised to reflect Proskauer's arrangement with the Oversight Board. The standard rates Proskauer charges for the services rendered by its professionals and paraprofessionals in these Title III cases have been reduced to reflect the unique circumstances of PROMESA and the position of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, its instrumentalities, and its residents. Schedules 2 and 5 show the rates Proskauer charges on an hourly basis are below the competitive market rates for bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy matters charged by the other professionals representing the Commonwealth and statutory committees. No Proskauer rates are increased as a result of the geographic location of a bankruptcy case.

28. All entries itemized in Proskauer's time records comply with the requirements set forth in the Guidelines, including, without limitation, (a) the utilization of project categories (each a "Project Category"), (b) a description of each activity or service that each individual performed, and (c) the number of hours (in increments of one-tenth of an hour) spent by each individual providing the services. Each Project Category is organized in accordance with Guidelines paragraph C.8.b. If a Project Category does not appear in a particular application, Proskauer did not bill time or expenses for that Project Category during the Compensation Period, but may bill time for that Project Category in the future.

Applicant Statement In Compliance with Appendix B Guidelines Paragraph C.5

29. The following answers are provided in response to the questions set forth in Guidelines paragraph C.5:

Question: Did you agree to any variations from, or alternatives to, your standard or customary billing rates, fees or terms for services pertaining to this engagement that were provided during the application period? If so, please explain.

Response: No.

Question: If the fees sought in this fee application as compared to the fees budgeted for the time period covered by this fee application are higher by 10% or more, did you discuss the reasons for the variation with the client?

Response: The total fees sought in this Application exceed the total budgeted fees for the time period, however, by less than 10% (the fees sought exceed the budgeted fees by 2.7%). The higher than budgeted fee amounts were in connection with the ongoing adversary proceedings including actions brought by UTIER and various fuel line lenders. Proskauer made significant efforts representing the Oversight Board and the Debtor in connection with these matters, including in connection with the PREPA Rule 9019 motion and continued negotiation regarding the Definitive RSA, dated May 3, 2019 (as amended). These efforts contributed to the higher than budgeted fee amounts.

Question: Have any of the professionals included in this fee application varied their hourly rate based on the geographic location of the bankruptcy case?

Response: No.

Question: Does the fee application include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing, or revising invoices? (This is limited to work involved in preparing and editing billing records that would not be compensable outside of bankruptcy and does not include reasonable fees for preparing a fee application.). If so, please quantify by hours and fees.

Response: No, the Application does not include time or fees related to reviewing time records or preparing, reviewing or revising invoices in connection with the preparation of monthly fee statements.

Question: Does this fee application include time or fees for reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information? If so, please quantify by hours and fees.

Response: No time was spent redacting time records on account of privilege concerns. However, the Application does include time related to billed as associates beginning on the first day of the month following such admission.

reviewing time records to redact time entries pursuant to Court-ordered mediation confidentiality.

Question: If the fee application includes any rate increases since retention: (i) Did your client review and approve those rate increases in advance? (ii) Did your client agree when retaining the law firm to accept all future rate increases? If not, did you inform your client that they need not agree to modified rates or terms in order to have you continue the representation, consistent with ABA Formal Ethics Opinion 11–458?

Response: Yes. The Engagement Letter provides that Proskauer’s rates are increased on January 1 (rather than on November 1, the beginning of Proskauer’s fiscal year) by the lower of the percentage rate increase announced as of November 1 and four percent. As Proskauer’s announced percentage rate increase exceeded four percent as of November 1, 2018, Proskauer’s rates with respect to its representation of the Oversight Board were increased by four percent as of January 1, 2019.

Gross-Up Amount

30. Prior to December 10, 2018, Puerto Rico taxed Proskauer’s fees differently depending on whether Proskauer’s timekeepers performed work while physically present in Puerto Rico or off-island. Specifically, a 7% withholding tax was assessed (at time of payment) on fees derived from work performed while the timekeeper was physically present in Puerto Rico, but not on fees derived from work performed outside of Puerto Rico.

31. On December 10, 2018, Puerto Rico enacted Act 257–2018, amending the Puerto Rico tax code and eliminating the differences in tax treatment based on where work was performed. Under Act 257–2018, all Proskauer fees incurred on or after December 10, 2018—regardless of the timekeepers’ physical location—are assessed with a 10% withholding tax at the time of payment.

32. Proskauer requests approval now, as part of its fees and expenses, of the amount required to gross up the additional tax withholding (the “Gross-Up Amount”) introduced by Act 257–2018 starting December 10, 2018 (the “Withholding”), in the amount of $530,432.78. But Proskauer will only request payment of the Gross-Up Amount from the Debtor if and when Proskauer partners receive a determination or objection from the Internal Revenue Service that the Withholding does not result in tax credits offsetting the Gross-Up Amount. As of the date of hereof, Proskauer has not requested payment of the Gross-Up Amount.

Professionals Billing Fewer Than Five Hours per Month

33. The following chart indicates, solely with respect to the Debtor's Title III Case, (a) professionals who billed fewer than five hours per month, (b) the months for which fewer than five hours were billed by the professional, and (c) an explanation of why the use of such professional was reasonable and necessary. As a general matter, because of the size and complexity of the Debtor's Title III Case, it was reasonable and necessary to consult with professionals with specific practice area expertise to assist Proskauer's core restructuring professionals in providing the Debtor with necessary and beneficial professional services. Moreover, it was often necessary to consult with professionals more familiar with other aspects of the restructuring of Puerto Rico and with specific adversary proceedings to deal with global strategic issues and ensure that positions taken by the Oversight Board are consistent across all the Title III cases. Furthermore, occasionally the urgency of certain briefing schedules required pulling in professionals from different work streams to assist on time-sensitive matters.¹⁴

74. The foregoing professional services performed by Proskauer on behalf of the Oversight Board as representative of the Debtor during the Compensation Period were reasonable, necessary, appropriate, and beneficial when rendered, facilitated the effective administration of the Debtor's Title III Case, and were in the best interests of the Oversight Board and the Debtor's creditors, residents, and other stakeholders. Compensation for the foregoing services as requested is commensurate with the complexity, importance, and time-sensitive nature of the problems, issues, and tasks involved. The professional services were performed with expedition and in an efficient manner.

75. In accordance with the factors enumerated in the Bankruptcy Code, the amount of fees requested is fair and reasonable given: (a) the complexity of the Debtor's Title III Case; (b) the time expended; (c) the nature and extent of the services rendered; (d) the value of such services; (e) Proskauer's established expertise in the bankruptcy field; and (f) the costs of comparable services other than in a case under the Bankruptcy Code.

Actual and Necessary Expenses of Proskauer

76. Pursuant to the Guidelines, Schedule 4 is Proskauer's summary of actual and necessary expenses incurred on behalf of the Oversight Board as representative of the Debtor during the Compensation Period.

77. In accordance with paragraph C.13 of the Appendix B Guidelines and as more fully itemized Schedule 4, Proskauer seeks reimbursement for its necessary and reasonable expenses, including: (a) reproduction, (b) online research, (c) local travel to and from airports, (d) out-of-town travel and lodging, (e) out-of-town meals, (f) transcription and translation services, (g) litigation support, and (h) professional services. All expense entries detailed in Exhibit B comply with the requirements set forth in the Guidelines, including an itemization of the expenses by category, the date the expense was incurred, and the individual incurring the expense, where available. The reasons for the expenses are self-explanatory. In compliance with Appendix B Guidelines paragraph C.13, the requested expenses are of the kind customarily charged to Proskauer's non-bankruptcy clients and by other comparable professionals.

78. Proskauer generally charges from $0.10 (black and white) to $0.30 (color) per page for photocopying expenses. The rates charged by the firm for Westlaw and Lexis computerized research vary according to the type of research conducted and the specific files researched, but, in any event, Proskauer does not profit from the use of computer assisted legal research, as set forth in Schedule 4. As per the Appendix B Guidelines, Proskauer has not requested reimbursement of expenses related to overhead charges, such as secretarial services and proofreading. The expenditures Proskauer is seeking reimbursement for and which are reflected on Schedule 4 are all of the type customarily billed to clients.

79. During the Compensation Period, Proskauer has disbursed $151,543.10 as necessary and reasonable expenses. These charges cover Proskauer's direct operating costs, which costs are not incorporated into the firm's hourly billing rates (because to do so would impose that cost upon clients who do not require extensive photocopying and other facilities and services). Only clients who actually benefit from services of the kind set forth in Exhibit B are separately charged for such services. Proskauer has made every effort to minimize its expenses in the Debtor's Title III Case. The actual expenses incurred in providing professional services were necessary, reasonable, and justified under the circumstances to effectively serve the needs of the Debtor in its Title III case.

Compensation Paid and Its Source

80. All services for which Proskauer seeks compensation, and expenses for which it seeks reimbursement, were performed on behalf of the Oversight Board as representative of the Debtor. In connection with the matters covered by this Application, Proskauer received no payment and no promises of payment for services rendered, or to be rendered, from any source other than the Debtor. There is no agreement or understanding between Proskauer and any other person, other than members of the firm, for the sharing of compensation received for services rendered in this Title III case.

81. PROMESA sections 316 and 317 provide for interim compensation of professionals and govern the Court's award of such compensation. PROMESA §§ 316, 317. PROMESA section 316 provides that a court may award a professional person employed by the Debtor or the Oversight Board under PROMESA "(1) reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the professional person, or attorney and by any paraprofessional person employed by any such person; and (2) reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." PROMESA § 316(a). Section 316 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded ... the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

- (1) the time spent on such services;
- (2) the rates charged for such services;
- (3) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this chapter;
- (4) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;

(5) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

(6) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this subchapter or title 11.

PROMESA §316(c).

82. As noted above, the professional services and expenditures for which Proskauer seeks compensation and reimbursement in this Application were necessary and beneficial to the Oversight Board as representative of the Debtor, and included, among other things, anticipating or responding to the Oversight Board's needs and assisting in the Oversight Board's navigation of the Debtor's very complex Title III case. The compensation requested herein is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Oversight Board. The Oversight Board has reviewed and approved this Application.

Reservations

83. To the extent time or disbursement charges for services rendered or expenses incurred relate to the Compensation Period but were not processed prior to the preparation of this Application, or Proskauer has for any other reason not yet sought compensation or reimbursement of expenses herein with respect to any services rendered or expenses incurred during the Compensation Period, Proskauer reserves the right to request compensation for such services and reimbursement of such expenses in a future application.
